LORRAINE HANSBERRY USA 1959

DIRECTED BY: Weyni Mengesha

FEATURING: Awaovieyi Agie, Barbara Barnes Hopkins, Matthew Kabwe, Abena Malika, Diego Matamoros, Charles Officer, Kofi Payton, Alison Sealy-Smith

DATES: October 15 – November 15

Share Lorraine Hansberry's seminal African American play with your class. This piece examines the plight of a black family in Chicago's Southside in the 1950s, and addresses the themes of ambition, dreams deferred, family, stereotyping and prejudice. This production is a perfect complement for English, History and Drama curricula.
